“All your works shall give thanks to you, O LORD, and all your saints shall bless you!” (Psalm 145:10, ESV). We gather to praise and worship the Lord on the first day of the week. Welcome to our fellowship.

There will be a Ladies Group meeting tomorrow at Tricia Frampton’s home starting at 6:30 PM. This group will meet every third Monday of the month. The purpose of the group is to better know each other as sisters in Christ and how we can help each other with the day-to-day struggles of life.

A group of our young people and parents will be leaving Carlisle this Thursday for the CYC in Pigeon Forge, TN. They will return next Sunday the 25th. Please remember them in your prayers as they travel and enjoy fellowship with other Christians.

The Heiser Bible Study is this Thursday at 7:00 PM. Mike Harper is facilitating the study. This study is open to all.

Teachers are needed for the Spring Quarter that starts March 4th. There is a sign-up sheet in the foyer. Our educational program would not be successful without each of our teachers. If you have any questions, please see Joe Salisbury.

Please mark the dates: Brad Harrub, co-founder of Focus Press, will be holding a What is Truth seminar on Friday and Saturday, March 2nd and 3rd, 2018 (one week from this coming Friday). There are flyers in the foyer to distribute.

It’s not too early to think about our summer church picnics. If you would like to host a picnic at your home, please see Bob Jacques for details.

Jesus said that He came to give us “an abundant life.” (John 10:10). Once we are “in Christ,” God wants us to enjoy ourselves in the Lord. Christians are to be a joyous people (Philippians 4:2). We must show our love for the Lord through our actions. One song says: “They’ll know we are Christians by our love.”

Paul tells the Colossians that since we are Christians our mindset must change (Colossians 3:1-2). This is the passage where we are told to “set our minds on the things that are above, not the things that are below.” (Colossians. 3:2) “Set your minds...” tells us that it must be a deliberate choice not only to accept Christ, but one to serve Him. Jesus will never force Himself on the unbeliever, and likewise, He will not force the believer to grow in Him. We must want to. And if we want to, He has promised to equip us for the journey.

We must put everything out of our hearts and minds that is detrimental to the Christian growth (Colossians 3:5-11). Whenever God tells us to “put something off,” He replaces it with something for good. (Colossians. 3:12-17) We are told that we must have the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25). We must realize that once we become a Christian these characteristics don’t come automatically, they must be cultivated. These are attitudes we must have if we are to live the “abundant life” in the Lord. So, let’s seek to “grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord Jesus.” (2 Peter 3:18) If we make this our goal, we will desire everything God has for us and will use what he has given us to help ourselves and encourage each other as we live this life in the here and now waiting, watching and working for the Lord Jesus Christ. Look up! He may come today!

A Heavenly Focus

“Why are not our hearts continually set on heaven?” asks 17th-century pastor and author Richard Baxter. Focusing on heaven stirs our faith, guards against temptation, eases suffering and makes us an encouragement to others, Baxter says. He urges: “Bend thy soul to study eternity, busy thyself about the life to come ... and let not those thoughts be seldom and cursory, but bathe thyself in heaven’s delights.”

A Ladies Day will be held here at the church building on Saturday, April 7th from 9:00 AM to 12:30 PM. Lunch will be provided. The theme is Through God’s Filter. There are flyers located in the foyer.

“Challenge: Appreciate a mom or dad in your life this week.”
